

Journal of the House

SIXTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, May 2, 2008, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to recess with Speaker pro tem Dahl in the chair.
The roll was called with 119 members present.
Rep. Kelley was excused on verified illness.
Reps. Aurand, Colyer, McKinney, Owens and Shultz were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.
Present later: Reps. Colyer, McKinney and Shultz.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Edmond P. Nash, District Superintendent, Kansas District Church of the Nazarene, Wichita, and guest of Rep. Neufeld:

God of Creation and revealer of Yourself to us as Heavenly Father,
We humbly stand in Your presence this day and invoke Your blessing upon this legislative body. Your Word tells us that every soul is to be subject to the governing authorities and that there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. Thus it is our prayer today that this body would recognize who they are and the awesome responsibility that accompanies their election. May they be strong as one because as individuals they are people of integrity joining together in honesty and transparency to carry out the decision making process that is theirs. May the moral underpinnings of a Judeo/Christian heritage that predates all of us by hundreds of years give foundation to uncorrupted debate and virtuous laws. Make it impossible for them to live with themselves if they violate the trust that has been given to them. Likewise, may their spirits soar with exuberance when they know they have, with principled conviction, done the right thing and cast the right vote. Bless them this day as they proceed within the framework of authority you have given them.

In the name of Christ I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Mast.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Ladies and gentlemen of the Kansas House, I present to you an outstanding example of our public schools succeeding — Wichita Colvin Elementary School. Colvin is located in the southeast Wichita neighborhood called Planeview. This neighborhood is home to families who face significant challenges of poverty and language.

In the face of these significant challenges to learning, Colvin Elementary has succeeded. This school has over 90% of its students eligible for free and reduced lunches based on federal poverty guidelines. There are several languages other than English spoken in the halls of Colvin. This requires the teachers and staff to teach these children to speak English before they can teach them reading, writing and arithmetic.

Colvin has formed a partnership with the students, their parents, the teachers, administrators and staff. This commitment to excellence has attracted private partners through the Toyota Motor Company Family Literacy Grant created with the assistance and support from Wichita State University. Over 300 grants were submitted and Colvin was one of only five awarded nationwide.

The results speak for themselves. Despite having a free and reduced lunch population of over 90% and significant language barriers, Colvin Elementary has met and exceeded the State Standard of Excellence. Colvin students have scored 80% or above in reading and math assessments. It was one of only five schools in the state facing those kinds of challenges to accomplish those results.

I would like to introduce the principal and leader of this amazing school, Karen Boethcher; teacher, Jennie Nelson; parent partner, Emma Herrera; and Brad Uhing from Wichita State University who was instrumental in helping draft the Toyota grant.

Please join me in recognizing the partners of Colvin Elementary.

Rep. Ward presented the principal, Karen Boethcher, with a framed House certificate.

(b) The commission shall:

(1) Develop a sentencing guideline model or grid based on fairness and equity and shall provide a mechanism for linking justice and corrections policies. The sentencing guideline model or grid shall establish rational and consistent sentencing standards which reduce sentence disparity, to include, but not be limited to, racial and regional biases which may exist under current sentencing practices. The guidelines shall specify the circumstances under which imprisonment of an offender is appropriate and a presumed sentence for offenders for whom imprisonment is appropriate, based on each appropriate combination of reasonable offense and offender characteristics. In developing its recommended sentencing guidelines, the commission shall take into substantial consideration current sentencing and release practices and correctional resources, including but not limited to the capacities of local and state correctional facilities. In its report, the commission shall make recommendations regarding whether there is a continued need for and what is the projected role of, if any, the Kansas parole board and whether the policy of allocating good time credits for the purpose of determining an inmate's eligibility for parole or conditional release should be continued;

(2) consult with and advise the legislature with reference to the implementation, management, monitoring, maintenance and operations of the sentencing guidelines system;

(3) direct implementation of the sentencing guidelines system;

For these purposes, the sentencing commission shall develop an implementation policy and shall construct an implementation manual for use in its training activities;

(5) receive presentence reports and journal entries for all persons who are sentenced for crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993, to develop post-implementation monitoring procedures and reporting methods to evaluate guideline sentences. In developing the evaluative criteria, the commission shall take into consideration rational and consistent sentencing standards which reduce sentence disparity to include, but not be limited to, racial and regional biases;

(6) advise and consult with the secretary of corrections and members of the legislature in developing a mechanism to link guidelines sentence practices with correctional resources and policies, including but not limited to the capacities of local and state correctional facilities. Such linkage shall include a review and determination of the impact of the sentencing guidelines on the state's prison population, review of corrections programs and a study of ways to more effectively utilize correction dollars and to reduce prison population;

(7) make recommendations relating to modification to the sentencing guidelines as provided in K.S.A. 21-4725, and amendments thereto;

(11) analyze problems in criminal justice, identify alternative solutions and make recommendations for improvements in criminal law, prosecution, community and correctional placement, programs, release procedures and related matters including study and recommendations concerning the statutory definition of crimes and criminal penalties and review of proposed criminal law changes;

(12) perform such other criminal justice studies or tasks as may be assigned by the governor or specifically requested by the legislature, department of corrections, the chief justice or the attorney general;

(15) produce official inmate population projections annually on or before six weeks following the date of receipt of the data from the department of corrections. When the commission's projections indicate that the inmate population will exceed available prison capacity within two years of the date of the projection, the commission shall identify and analyze the impact of specific options for (A) reducing the number of prison admissions; or (B) adjusting sentence lengths for specific groups of offenders. Options for reducing the number of prison admissions shall include, but not be limited to, possible modification of both sentencing grids to include presumptive intermediate dispositions for certain categories of offenders. Intermediate sanction dispositions shall include, but not be limited to: intensive supervision; short-term jail sentences; halfway houses; community-based work release; electronic monitoring and house arrest; substance abuse treatment; and pre-revocation incarceration. Intermediate sanction options shall include, but not be limited to, mechanisms to explicitly target offenders that would otherwise be placed in prison. Analysis of each option shall include an assessment of such options impact on the overall size of the prison population, the effect on public safety and costs. In preparing the assessment, the commission shall review the experience of other states and shall review available research regarding the effectiveness of such option. The commission's findings relative to each sentencing policy option shall be presented to the governor and the joint committee on corrections and juvenile justice oversight no later than November 1;

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We vote “No” on the Conference Committee Report for SB 531. Ensuring that Kansas school children have an excellent education is one of the most important issues facing the state of Kansas. However, we believe the current school finance formula is fundamentally unfair to the school children of Johnson County. SB 531 would expand the inequities in the formula in which Johnson County pays in over 30% of the funds, has 18% of the school children, but only gets 8% of the school funding. We strongly support additional school funding, but we cannot affirm the current division of resources and must make our voices heard. We vote “No.” — KEVIN YODER, KAY WOLF, TERRIE HUNTINGTON, JILL QUIGLEY, PAT COLLOTON, RON WORLEY, RONNIE METSKER, LANCE KINZER, BENJAMIN HODGE, ANTHONY BROWN, MIKE KIEGERL, OWEN DONOHOE, RAY MERRICK

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Merrick and Hayzlett are spread upon the journal:

Remarks by Rep. Merrick:

Jonathan Small was instrumental in transforming the State Area Command into a Joint Forces Headquarters. He personally oversaw and successfully executed the deployment of over six thousand fully qualified combat ready Kansas Army National Guard Soldiers to support the Global War on Terrorism.

Jon was the catalyst and drive behind the successful ratification of the Kansas Soldiers and Airmen Bill of Rights recently enacted.

During his entire career, Brigadier General Small worked tirelessly to improve the quality of life for Soldiers and Airmen alike. His efforts coordinating between multiple levels of the military and state agencies led to Kansas receiving millions of dollars from the federal and state governments for facility renovations.

I am honored and proud to call Jon a friend. Jon, thank you for your service to your city, our state and our country.

Remarks by Rep. Hayzlett:

Eighteen years ago when I came to the legislature one of the first people I met was Jonathan Small. I was in Rep. Kenny King's office and saw a picture of Rep. King standing by a fighter jet. He said he got a back seat ride and I asked how I could get a ride. He introduced me to Jon Small. He said he could arrange it, and I am still waiting. Jon. Colonel Small and now General Small had many titles but most of all and the best title for me is friend. Thank you Jon for your friendship over the years, and congratulations on your retirement.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 5042—

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION authorizing the legislative coordinating council to hire private legal counsel for the purpose of bringing suit against the governor on the grounds of violation by the executive branch of the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers based on the governor's and the executive branch's actions relating to the authorization of a coal-fired power plant in this state.

WHEREAS, The governor and the executive branch of state government have made questionable legal decisions in dealing with the matter of the application of sunflower electric power corporation to build and construct a coal-fired power plant in the Holcomb, Kansas, area of the state; and

WHEREAS, These decisions and other actions by the executive branch of this state have raised numerous legal and constitutional questions concerning the actions taken by the executive branch, including questions relating to the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers between the executive and legislative branches of state government; and

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the legislative coordinating council is authorized to hire private legal counsel pursuant to K.S.A. 2007 Supp. 46-1222a to bring suit against the governor and other executive branch officers as appropriate on the grounds of violation by the executive branch of

(E) to aid in determining the petitioner's qualifications for the following under the Kansas expanded lottery act: (i) Lottery gaming facility manager or prospective manager, racetrack gaming facility manager or prospective manager, licensee or certificate holder; or (ii) an officer, director, employee, owner, agent or contractor thereof;
