

Journal of the Senate

SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 16, 2024, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

To Hear "Well done, good and faithful servant..."
Matt. 25:21

Heavenly Father, we thank You today that we were blessed yesterday, not only with another day off but with the opportunity to use that day remembering and honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr's life and legacy. And Lord, although his life was cut short by evil, the impact of his life was not. Your influence in his life empowers his legacy to live on. He exhibited for us a life of sacrifice. He showed us what it means to suffer or even be martyred for a cause.

Lord, he is quoted as saying, "if you have never found something so dear and precious that you would die for it, then you aren't fit to live." He said, "You may be 38 years old as I am, and some great opportunity stands before you calling upon you to stand up for some great principle, some great issue, or cause and you refuse because you are afraid; you refuse because you want to live longer, or are afraid you'll lose your job, or afraid you'll be criticized or lose your popularity or that somebody will stab you, shoot you or bomb your house, so you refuse to take the stand. Well, you may go on and live until you are 90, but you're just as dead at 38, as you would be at 90!

And the cessation of breathing in your life is but the belated announcement of an earlier death of your spirit. You died when you refused to stand up for right, you died when you refused to stand up for truth, and when you refused to stand up for justice." z

So, Lord, let me close thanking You for giving us the day off, but asking that love, grace, mercy and justice take no days off. Impress, inspire and empower us to live life sacrificially not only, in the example of MLK, Jr., but in the example of Jesus, the One, MLK Jr. chose to follow. So, at the end of our lives, we can hear You say those Words of Matthew 25:21, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant...Come and join Me in glory." Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.
