Request for bill introductions

The Chair asked if there were any requests for bill introductions.

Jennifer King, Executive Director of Public Affairs, Kansas Department of Corrections (KDOC) requested introduction of 24rs2753 dealing with authorization of the Secretary of KDOC to allow juvenile offenders to leave juvenile correction centers under certain circumstances. With no objections, the bill was accepted for introduction.

Jennifer King also requested introduction of 24rs2843 that would update the terms of supervision for offenders on probation and post-release supervision. With no objections, the bill was accepted for introduction.

Representative Eric Smith requested the introduction of 24rs2609 that would create the crime of home invasion. With no objections, the bill was accepted for introduction.

As a follow-up to the informational briefing from the Kansas Department of Corrections regarding reintegration efforts at the January 23, 2024 committee meeting, Jennifer King, (KDOC) provided information about the number of residents released with a social security card. (Attachment 1)
