"New Section 1. (a) (1) In any criminal prosecution, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose its intent to introduce testimony of a jailhouse witness regarding statements made by a suspect or defendant while such witness and suspect or defendant were both incarcerated within the time provided by K.S.A. 22-3212, and amendments thereto. The prosecuting attorney shall provide to the defense:

(A) The criminal history of the jailhouse witness, including any pending or dismissed criminal charges;

(B) the jailhouse witness's cooperation agreement and any benefit that has been provided to or will be provided in the future to the jailhouse witness;

(C) the contents of any statement allegedly given by the suspect or defendant to the jailhouse witness and the contents of any statement given by the jailhouse witness to law enforcement regarding the statements allegedly made by the suspect or defendant, including the time and place such statements were given;

(D) any information regarding the jailhouse witness recanting testimony or statements, including the time and place of the recantation, the nature of the recantation and the names of the people present at the recantation; and

(E) any cooperation agreement and any benefit that the jailhouse witness received in any criminal case in which the testimony of such jailhouse witness was introduced.

(2) The court may permit the prosecuting attorney to comply with the provisions of this section after the time period provided in paragraph (1) if the court finds that the jailhouse witness was not known or the information described in paragraph (1) could not be discovered or obtained by the prosecuting attorney exercising due diligence within such time period.

(3) If the court finds that disclosing the information described in paragraph (1) is likely to cause bodily harm to the jailhouse witness, the court may:

(A) Order that such evidence be viewed only by the defense counsel and not by the defendant or others; and

(B) issue a protective order.

(b) (1) Each prosecuting attorney's office shall maintain a central record containing information regarding:

(A) Any case in which testimony by a jailhouse witness is introduced by a prosecuting attorney regarding statements made by a suspect or defendant and the substance of such testimony; and

(B) any benefit that has been provided to or will be provided in the future to a jailhouse witness in connection with testimony provided by such witness.

(2) Each prosecuting attorney's office shall forward the information described in paragraph (1) to the Kansas bureau of investigation. The bureau shall maintain a statewide database containing the information forwarded pursuant to this section. Such database shall be accessible only to prosecuting attorneys and shall otherwise remain confidential and not subject to the open records act, K.S.A. 45-215 et seq., and amendments thereto. The provision regarding confidentiality shall not be subject to expiration or review pursuant to K.S.A. 45-229, and amendments thereto.

(2) "Jailhouse witness" means a person who provides testimony during a criminal prosecution regarding statements made by a suspect or defendant while both the witness and the suspect or defendant were incarcerated, and who has been offered or may in the future receive a benefit in connection with such testimony. "Jailhouse witness" does not mean a person who is a confidential informant, an accomplice or a co-defendant.

(d) This section shall be a part of and supplemental to the Kansas code of criminal procedure.";

On page 24, following line 6, by inserting:

"Sec. 9. K.S.A. 45-229 is hereby amended to read as follows: 45-229. (a) It is the intent of the legislature that exceptions to disclosure under the open records act shall be created or maintained only if:

- (1) The public record is of a sensitive or personal nature concerning individuals;
- (2) the public record is necessary for the effective and efficient administration of a governmental program; or
- (3) the public record affects confidential information.

The maintenance or creation of an exception to disclosure must be compelled as measured by these criteria. Further, the legislature finds that the public has a right to have access to public records unless the criteria in this section for restricting such access to a public record are met and the criteria are considered during legislative review in connection with the particular exception to disclosure to be significant enough to override the strong public policy of open government. To strengthen the policy of open government, the legislature shall consider the criteria in this section before enacting an exception to disclosure.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsections (g) and (h), any new exception to disclosure or substantial amendment of an existing exception shall expire on July 1 of the fifth year after enactment of the new exception or substantial amendment, unless the legislature acts to continue the exception. A law that enacts a new exception or substantially amends an existing exception shall state that the exception expires at the end of five years and that the exception shall be reviewed by the legislature before the scheduled date.

(c) For purposes of this section, an exception is substantially amended if the amendment expands the scope of the exception to include more records or information. An exception is not substantially amended if the amendment narrows the scope of the exception.

(d) This section is not intended to repeal an exception that has been amended following legislative review before the scheduled repeal of the exception if the exception is not substantially amended as a result of the review.

(e) In the year before the expiration of an exception, the revisor of statutes shall certify to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, by July 15, the language and statutory citation of each exception that will expire in the following year that meets the criteria of an exception as defined in this section. Any exception that is not identified and certified to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives is not subject to legislative review and shall not expire. If the revisor of statutes fails to certify an exception that the revisor subsequently determines should have been certified, the revisor shall include the exception in the following year's certification after that determination.

(f) "Exception" means any provision of law that creates an exception to disclosure or limits disclosure under the open records act pursuant to K.S.A. 45-221, and amendments thereto, or pursuant to any other provision of law.

(g) A provision of law that creates or amends an exception to disclosure under the open records law shall not be subject to review and expiration under this act if such provision:

- (1) Is required by federal law;
- (2) applies solely to the legislature or to the state court system;
- (3) has been reviewed and continued in existence twice by the legislature;~~or~~
- (4) has been reviewed and continued in existence by the legislature during the 2013 legislative session and thereafter; or

(5) is contained in the following statute: section 1(b).

(h) (1) The legislature shall review the exception before its scheduled expiration and consider as part of the review process the following:

- (A) What specific records are affected by the exception;
- (B) whom does the exception uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public;
- (C) what is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exception;
- (D) whether the information contained in the records may be obtained readily by alternative means and how it may be obtained;

(2) an exception may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and may be no broader than is necessary to meet the public purpose it serves. An identifiable public purpose is served if the legislature finds that the purpose is sufficiently compelling to override the strong public policy of open government and cannot be accomplished without the exception and if the exception:

- (A) Allows the effective and efficient administration of a governmental program that would be significantly impaired without the exception;

(B) protects information of a sensitive personal nature concerning individuals, the release of such information would be defamatory to such individuals or cause unwarranted damage to the good name or reputation of such individuals or would jeopardize the safety of such individuals. Only information that would identify the individuals may be excepted under this paragraph; or

(C) protects information of a confidential nature concerning entities, including, but not limited to, a formula, pattern, device, combination of devices, or compilation of information that is used to protect or further a business advantage over those who do not know or use it, if the disclosure of such information would injure the affected entity in the marketplace.

(3) Records made before the date of the expiration of an exception shall be subject to disclosure as otherwise provided by law. In deciding whether the records shall be made public, the legislature shall consider whether the damage or loss to persons or entities uniquely affected by the exception of the type specified in paragraph (2)(B) or (2)(C) would occur if the records were made public.

(i) (1) Exceptions contained in the following statutes as continued in existence in section 2 of chapter 126 of the 2005 Session Laws of Kansas and that have been reviewed and continued in existence twice by the legislature as provided in subsection (g) are hereby continued in existence: 1-401, 2-1202, 5-512, 9-1137, 9-1712, 9-2217, 10-630, 12-189, 12-1,108, 12-1694, 12-1698, 12-2819, 12-4516, 16-715, 16a-2-304, 17-1312e, 17-2227, 17-5832, 17-7511, 17-76,139, 19-4321, 21-2511, 22-3711, 22-4707, 22-4909, 22a-243, 22a-244, 23-605, 23-9,312, 25-4161, 25-4165, 31-405, 34-251, 38-2212, 39-709b, 39-719e, 39-934, 39-1434, 39-1704, 40-222, 40-2,156, 40-2c20, 40-2c21, 40-2d20, 40-2d21, 40-409, 40-956, 40-1128, 40-2807, 40-3012, 40-3304, 40-3308, 40-3403b, 40-3421, 40-3613, 40-3805, 40-4205, 44-510j, 44-550b, 44-594, 44-635, 44-714, 44-817, 44-1005, 44-1019, 45-221(a)(1) through (43), 46-256, 46-259, 46-2201,
