FORTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, March 11, 2011, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey and Masterson were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Speaking for a legislator, what is it about this job that will give me the most lasting satisfaction?

I suspect it won't be the bills I sponsored,
Nor the committees I chaired,
Nor the plaques on my wall,
Not even the elections I won.

I suspect it will be the times....

When I drove a hundred miles out of my way and lost half a day to help a nursing home resident get what was rightfully hers, knowing full well she voted for my opponent!

When I bypassed my favorite social event to encourage a sixth grade class to just say "No", while knowing that none of them could vote for another seven years.

When I spent half a night making calls in order to help a felon get rehabilitated.

When I skipped a speaking engagement arranged by an influential constituent so I could attend my five year old's birthday party.

Remind me, O God, that the times I will look back on as most satisfying will be those when I performed a service for people I knew had no way to repay me.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Who gave His life for those who could never repay Him,

AMEN

The pledge of allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.
