Journal of the Senate

FORTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 28, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Bruce, Donovan, Haley and Olson were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Some seem to think that Sunday
Is the only day God's alive,
And church the only place
In which You can survive.

Some say if You escape,
They will stop You at the door.
Since government and God
Cannot be friendly anymore.

But we need You at the State House,
And we need You every day;
Church is not the only place
Where we need to pray.

We need You in the chambers,
We need You in the halls;
We need You lots of places;
Outside the church's walls.

We need You in the office,
And we need You in committees;
We need You when we're getting down
To the nitty-gritty.

We're thankful, Lord, You're not confined
To some sanctuary;

You're always near to help us fight
Our daily adversary.

We thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ. AMEN

The pledge of allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill and concurrent resolution were introduced and read by title:

SB 245, AN ACT concerning state expenditures; relating to allotments; amending K.S.A. 75-3722 and K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 72-6410, 75-2263, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 75-6704, by Committee on Federal and State Affairs.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No.1607—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION outlining the principles of the State of Kansas regarding immigration reform policies.

WHEREAS, Failure to update our federal immigration system separates Kansas families, destabilizes Kansas communities, and creates uncertainty, inefficiency and an uneven playing field for Kansas businesses and economy; and

WHEREAS, The forced separation of working parents from their children weakens families and damages society; and

WHEREAS, Failure to address the system where it can be fixed – at the federal level – has left states searching for solutions in ways that have been costly and divisive: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Legislature recommends the following basic principles as a guide for state and federal policy on immigration:

1. Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries – not Kansas and other countries. The Legislature urges the Kansas congressional delegation to take action to create a workable immigration system that upholds our values and moves us forward; and

2. the Legislature respects the rule of law and supports law enforcement's professional judgment and discretion. Local law enforcement resources should focus on criminal activities, not civil violations of federal code; and

3. strong families are the foundation of successful communities. The Legislature opposes policies that unnecessarily separate families. The Legislature champions policies that support families and improve the health, education and well-being of all Kansas children; and

4. the Legislature acknowledges the important economic role immigrant Kansans play as workers, entrepreneurs and taxpayers. The immigration policies of Kansas must affirm its reputation as a welcoming and business friendly state; and

5. immigration is an important part of our past and our future. As in the past, immigrants are integrated into communities across Kansas. We must adopt a humane approach to this reality, reflecting our values, history and spirit of inclusion. The way we treat immigrants will say more about us as a society and less about our immigrant neighbors. Kansas should always be a place that welcomes people of goodwill. Our communities and our future will be best served by doing so.

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature urgently calls upon the Kansas congressional delegation and the United States Congress to enact thorough, common sense, workable and humane reforms that reflect the realities of our country's workforce needs and represents America at its best.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate and each member of the Kansas congressional delegation.

CORRECTION OF THE JOURNAL

Correct the Journal of the Senate on March 23, 2011 on page 502, under the roll call vote on Sub SB 159, following the line “The substitute bill passed, as amended.” by inserting the following Explanation of Vote by Senator Haley.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on SB 159. Under duress (that is, “sign a waiver consenting to be searched at all times or remain in prison”), an inmate waives their fourth and fifth amendment constitutional rights. (Prohibiting illegal search and seizures; Right against self-incrimination.) Can this be legal?

And is a search-of-person limited to the body of that person or expansive to include the car or the house? It is wrong to provide this foundation for legitimized harassment by stop-and-frisks done only because of parolee status. Imagine standing around at a function with associates and some random officer walks up and, with the force of this law, embarrasses the parolee for no reason. We should allow some modicum of respect of All people; irrespective of their past transgression(s). – DAVID HALEY

Correct the Journal of the Senate for March 23, 2011 on page 478, under the roll call vote on HB 2182, following the line “The bill passed, as amended.” by inserting the following Explanation of Vote by Senator Haley.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on HB 2182, as amended by the Committee of the Whole. I support the underlying bill but wholly oppose the amendment regarding the so-called freedom from Healthcare Act, which is a feckless, meaningless attempt to decouple Kansas from provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, signed into law exactly one year ago today (nicknamed “Obamacare”).

We should, as a mature, responsible legislature with little time or taxpayer dollars, stop wasting our limited session on political posturing, especially on a federal program which will potentially benefit all Kansans; all Americans.

Grow up; move forward colleagues.....ahead!

The U.S. Supreme Court will ultimately render a verdict affirming, or not, the constitutionality of the Healthcare Act. I believe we, who desire a healthier, more financially secure America, will prevail. And will then, unobstructed finally, go to work....for America.

So when Obamacare is working well for the majority of this country, please do yourself two favors, O.K.?

First: Continue to give credit, as Obamacare, to this Presidential Administration and to the visionary, brave, men and women of the last Congress for its passage, and

Second: “What will the children think?” Our chaplain, Fred Holloman asked us to consider during this morning's senate prayer, so when Obamacare is working and the stories of a healthier and more financially secure constituency abound, try not to hang your heads in shame when your children and grandchildren ask you: “Tell me why, again were you so against healthcare benefits...??” O.K.? – DAVID HALEY
