

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-5429. Time deposit accounts in negotiable form; issuance without recording ownership.

Subject to such prohibitions, limitations and conditions as the state savings and loan commissioner may prescribe by rules and regulations, any state chartered savings and loan association having its principal office in this state, which is a member of a federal home loan bank, may issue time deposit accounts in negotiable form without recording ownership on the books of the association to the same extent it could if it were operating as a federal savings and loan association, notwithstanding, restrictions contained in articles 51 through 58 of chapter 17 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated.

History: L. 1987, ch. 82, § 1; July 1.